The market opens dull and flat, and the transactions are so light that quotations cannot be made with any correctness, so we make no change from the closing prices of last week. The stock of Flour on hand is very light, and there is but little domand except for local purposes. Wheat is dull and in light receipt; the only offering to-day was a lot of 216 bushels of new, which sold at 100. Corn is scarce and wanted, and, in consequence, prices keep up: small sales were made to-day at 58 and 60, though the latter price was considered too high. No offerings of Ryo or Oats. Country produce quiet and unchanged

WEATHER PROBABILITIES-June 24, 1878. For the rest of Monday in the Middle Atlantic cloudy or clear weather, stationary or rising ba- letter: rometer will prevail.

County Schools.-The closing of Walker School in the county was celebrated last Friday evening by an exhibition by the scholars, and the awarding of prizes by the teacher.

Although the weather was somewhat unfavorable, on account of which the Superintendent of Schoo's, Mr. R. L. Carne, and a gentleman who was to have delivered an oration on that occasion, and a favorite reporter from this city, did not put in an appearance. Yet the room, which was beautifully lighted and decorated, was crowded to overflowing by the patrons and friends of the school. Upon announcement by Mr. James Edward Clements. teacher of the school, the excroises were opened by singing the celebrated Kentucky Jubilee Chorus, "We All Shall Be Free," by the whole school, with organ accompaniment .--The echolars, beside singing well, were handsomely dressed and presented a most beautiful spectacle.

The following programme, mostly humorous dialogues and recitations was then presented: Give us Little Boys a Chance, by Willie Farlie; "Strong Drink," by James H. Birch; "A Girl Like Me," by Miss Vinnie Collins: "A Hundred Years to Come," Dialogue, by Miss Mary Veitch and Willie Hirst; "How to Make Mothers Happy," by A. Duke Torreyson and Clyde Ball; "The Old Man in the Woods," recitation, by J. Randolph Robertson; "Phreo Fishers," by Florence Topley; "I'll be a Man," by little Homer Hirst; "Three Little Toad Stools," by Cora Robertson; "Lit-tle Chatter Box," by Jessie Topley; "Be Careful What You say," by L. Clyde Ball; "Three Wise Old Women," by Gracie Toply; "The Plower of Liberty," by Gracie Douglas; "Custer's Last Charge," by James H. Birch; "Mary's Phunny Little Lamb," comis recitation by Hal. Whallon; Concluding with the laughable collequy entitled "The Novel Readby "Misses Annette Veitch, Isabel Robertson and Arlino Corbett, who were ap plauded to the encore. All of these were well rendered, many of them creating considerable merriment among the audience.

The floral display of magnificent baskets and bouquets presented the scholars would compare very favorably with those seen at similar exhibitions in our neighboring cities.

Honors were then awarded to the scholars as follows: Gold medal to Miss Isabel Robertson for having been victorious in the greatest number of spelling contests during the past term. The school is indebted to Trustee John Febrey who gave this medal. Trustee G. R. Adams awarded the honor with fitting remarks, Gold medal to Miss Arline Corbett, for Excellence in General Studies, this young lady having said more perfect lessons than any other scholar of the school during the year. This medal was awarded by the teacher, Mr. Jas. Ewd. Clements. Mr. H. A. Whallon, who was called upon to present it, did so, at the same time making a touchingly elequent and appropriate speech.

Collins and Ida Marcey, Masters Arthur Veitch, been taken. Willie Hirst, William Ball, Homer Hirst, Randolph Robertson, Dake Torreyson and Willie Farlee for having said over 65 per cent. officers of Mt. Vernon Lodge, No. 259, I. O. of all lessons perfectly during the year. A beautiful book was presented Miss Mary Hall, last night. The following were elected: Veitch, by her teacher, for being the best President, Moscs Bendheim; Vice President, speller in the junior class. Testimonials of of honor for deportment, were awarded to cial and Recording Sceretary, Samuel Wolf; Misses Isabel Robertson and Arline Corbett, Mentor, M. Ullman; Assistant Mentor, J.

for deportment during the year. The closing chorus was then sung by the entire school with considerable vim and precision, after which Trustee Adams complimented the teachers and scholars upon their work of the past year, and expressed his satisfaction at seeing such a large number of the patrons and friends of the school present. He then announced that the school would be opened on the first Monday in September next, which concluded the exercises.

Fatal Explosion.

NEW YORK, June 24.-Oliver S. Vincent and Wm. H. Code, clerks in the tax collector's office, Brooklyn, entered the vault wherein the books of the department are kept. Code lighted a match to light the gas jet, and an explesion of gas instantly followed, and the wall of the valut was blown in the middle of the office, and railings, furniture, windows and sashes were demolished. Vincent was blown across the room about forty feet, his clothes torn off, hair burned and face and body fearfully lacerated. Code was buried in the ruins. These two men are fatally injured. Several in the tax office at the time were severely injured.

A SECRETION THAT CONTAMINATES THE Broop .- When the bile is diverted from its proper channels, into the blood, which is always the case in livers complaints, it ceases to be a healthy secretion, and becomes a posion. Its abnormal presence in the circulation and stomach is indicated; by the suffusion of the skin with a hideous saffron tinge, by headaches, vertigo, nausea, pain in the righ side and under the right shoulder blade, by indigestion, obstruction of the bowels, and other minor symptoms. Order may be substituted for this state; of chaos, and further bodily evil averted by using the beneficent alterative and tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which by relaxing the bowels, promotes the escape from the circulation of bilious impurities; besides rendering the action of the liver regular, and removing every trace of dyspepsis. This pleasant and purely vegetable anti-billions medicine is not only infinitely more effective than any form of mercury, but is on account of its freedom from burtful properties, infinitely to be preferred to that poisonous drug.

THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF THE CHESAPEAKE FEMALE INSTITUTE, MISS JULIA ROSZELL, Principal, took place Wednesday evening, at No. 738 Lexington street, opposite Garrett's Park. The exercises were opened with prayer, by Rov. Dr. Spangler, followed by a chorus by school. Miss Ida Spartzman read the salutatory address, in a clear, musical voice, every word being distinctly heard by the whole audience. Recitations were very prettily rendered by Misses Lillie Hance, Viola Clark and Jennie Poisal. The selections of "Maiden Martyr," by Miss Mamie Redgrave, and "Old Chapel Bell," by Miss Mollie Startzman, were beautiful by read. Junior mathematics was assigned to Misses Jordon and Redgrave, respectively seven and six years of age, consisting of the whole of the multiplication table-forward by the latter, and all of them backward by the former-a difficult task, and performed with great accuracy, receiving loud pe for the occasion, was admirably perform conferred by Rev. Dr. Cox, with appropriat creto each of the medalists, in his own original and facetious style, and intouching language herefer-red to the absent medalist, whose attendance was provented by a late bereavement in her family. Rev. Dr. Poisal made the closing address, in which he highly complimented the teachers, and commended the Institute to public favor and patronage. The exercises were then closed by Professor S. S. Grauer, with an artistic rendering of "The Sweet Bye and Bye." The large audience of distinguished friends and patrons of the Institute then dispersed, pro nouncing the occasion one of great success, and themselves as having been delightfully enter-
